

LOCH LEVEN
HERITAGE TRAIL

Loch Leven Heritage Trail Credits

Photo – Mark Beaumont and kids cycling the Loch Leven Trail, view from Kinross House through Fish Gate to Castle Island.

On 3rd November 2008 Mark Beaumont (Guinness Book record holder), accompanied by a group of local school children, cycled from RSPB Vane Farm to Kinross Pier to launch the opening celebrations.

The official opening was conducted by Andrew Thin, Chairman of Scottish Natural Heritage.

Credits

TRACKS would like to thank the following organisations for their generous support of the Loch Leven Heritage Trail project.

Heritage Lottery Fund, Scottish Natural Heritage, Gannochy Trust, Perth and Kinross Countryside Trust, Perth and Kinross Council, Forestry Commission, A&M Thomson Charitable Trust, SITA Environmental Trust, Community Environmental Renewal Scheme, Historic Scotland, Kinross Estate Company, River Leven Trust, Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, Findatie Farm, StewartsTurf Ltd., Lethangie Estate.

And the many volunteers from the local area, particularly from Kinross High School, local primary schools and those volunteers working through SNH and RSPB.

Scotland's
National Nature
Reserves
Magical places, amazing wildlife.

LOTTERY FUNDED