

LOCH LEVEN
HERITAGE TRAIL

CAN YOU FIND... LOCH LEVEN BIRDS

Loch Leven is home to hundreds of ducks and birds. Can you spot these as you walk on the trail? Shhh..mind you don't disturb them! the boxes when you spot the birds.

Sedge warbler

Summer visitor,
usually by marshy places

Peregrine falcon

Fast flight,
hunts throughout the area

Chaffinch

Resident, in woodland and hedges

Common gull

Breeds by loch,
winters on farmland

Curlew

Found on wet pastures and farmland

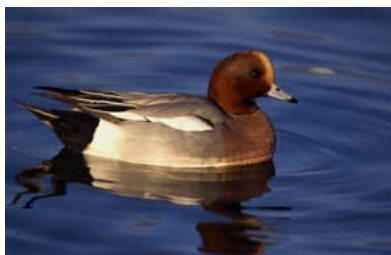

Kingfisher

Often fishes from a perch by river, stream or loch

Osprey

Summer visitor,
feeds entirely on fish

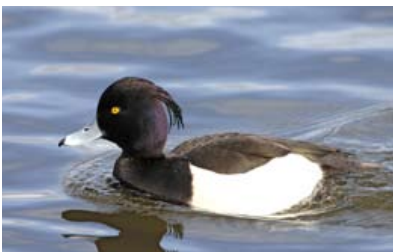

Wigeon

Dabbling duck, also eats grass

Pink footed goose

Winter visitor

Tufted duck

Diving duck able to feed in deeper water

Teal

Smallest duck, feeds on seeds/insects in shallow water

Whooper swan

Winter visitor